Bald wird definitiv auch ein Interview mit einer Filippinoband im Breakdown erscheinen... Bleibt nur zu hoffen,daß trotz der Rückkehr der Marcos-Witwe aus ihrem Exil diese Inselrepublik diktaturfrei bleibt. Sonst wird diese Republik in neue Konflikte gestürzt...

SNOIL

Hi-Ho, crew! From the jock capital of Asia, that boring nation whare people spends most of their time consuming crap and doing crap as well! Amerikka's chained nation, the R.I.Phil.! This is Tom-Tom(and me Reypea). With what could be an anti-fanzine scene reports or worse!

TOM: Well, while our nation is suffering from a politically-caused economic depression, half of the country was clogged up by lung-hazardous volcanic ashfall from Mt. Pinatubo.

REY: Though a lotso expensive things like diamond quarts and gold coins were found with the ashes! And besides the ashfall is silicon sulfate. So think of all the happy flat breasted folks happy now!

TOM: Our filthy fuckin' corrupt politicians are spending millions of money (our nation's money) preparing for the upcoming 1992 elections, while the thousands of Filipinos are left homeless, devastated by the volcanic eruptions.

REY: Yes. And because of too many political redtapes and military check this-check that, the proper medical supplies and aids are delayed to reach the desperate victims of the calamity. Warrantless arrests are still approved by the Cory administration. The Marcelo B. Fernan fascist court has to date ruledd that the military and police checkpoints are legal,, and so are warrantless arrests. Under the first ruling, it's legal for the military and the police to stop you, whether you're on foot or vehicle, anywhere they please in this archipelago and the guy's gonna run for president next year! Ho-ho!

TOM: And because of the shaky volcanic activity, the Americans left their bases under a nuclear red alert. They've got more nukes than Godzilla's fart and they deserted the bases leaving nuclear facilities.. Only a tap of volcanic hard tremor or a bad flow off lava could blow us off to bits!

REY: So hey you! U.N. nuke facility inspectors! Stop buggin those Iraqis and check out our bases. This fuckers got a bigger violation! For 1991, our government is in debt. P 77.1B for domestic and only P 36.4B for foreign debt. So we don't worry that much on our foreign debt! And because of that debt, the IMF and other foreign creditors are there not to give us a hand but to impose on our government, economy and education.policies that will only further brought hardship on our people, being unable to improve themselves. Education is denied to our youth by such high tuition implemented by the IMF, so that whose who can afford to go to college can end up like their forebears as hewers of woods and drawers of water. And how about our media? As of now, our media, the foundation of our cultures mental corruption and attitude deprogression has won over the youth, sexist gang bang rap music, commercialized black jock attitude, crap metal, and lotso boring halfwit bullshit Sad thing about this is that most of the kids in the scene subscribe to this bullshit!

Anyway, the bunch the scene are mad about are Philippine Viorators, one of our soceity's longest running nightmare, still kickin' serious arses. After all this fucked-up times, they've managed to release their solo album under the T.R.C. label, plus their inclusion in T.R.C.'s many compilations. They play life-inspired melodik hardcore, and thy're great live! By September, they will be releasing a D.I.Y. project called "State of Confusion", a superbly recorded self-produced album with 13 pooukrockin tracks! They have a new bass player and a drummer, so check em out! Contras have also been around for quite some time now, playing their own teeth-breakin form of Oi and punk at its best! Last time I've watched this f olks, it felt 1977! Error Youth are also into oi, s evere punkness with a socially-conscious lyrix. The ir very tight live playing mostly 4 skins tunes. Bo th of this band's live demos are available through S T.D. and at a video entitled "Dead Meet". A live do cumentation of local underground concerts! Infernal Wrath, a well-known splatter-core bunch, had release d a tracks in a T.R.C. compilation called "Where Do we Go from Here". They've got words meant more than Bad Metal, intensity-hard with deep social insights. Today, they are very much into Death Metal. But unf ortunately, they're having a hard time finding a gui tar player after one of their members went to Califo rnia to work.

REY: But that member was their drummer!

TOM: Yes, but they're looking for a guitarist! The last time I saw em live, they were playing coversong s by the Accused and the Dead Kennedys. Crematorium a death metal outfit which plays a shrieking and gri ngy form of hardcore, are now disbanded due to one o their members drug-problem. They have a number of g igs but they got bitter reactions from the crowd. M aybe that is how closed-minded Pinoys are. Anyway,, their demos are available through S.T.D. for trade.. They are, however, included in the United Crumbs com pilation 2 "No Barriers, No Limits", an internationa l compilation featuring the world's most brutal deat h bunch burnin together in one heavy headache! The r drummer is said to be forming a new bunch that wil l soon be blastin hardcore-trash. Wuds, a Hare Kris hna bunch rockin upbeat brilliance since 1983, are s till around strong. They have an album under T.R.C. entitled "ArmsTalk". Agony of Destruction have chan ged their name into Resurected, now rockin their own unnerving prototrash, are planning to put on a demo. I.O.V., one of the most influential hardcore bands i n the local scene, are into crossover. Everytime I see em live, they play the same metallica and sacred reich cover songs. To me, they're quite boring now. They've also released an album under T.R.C., "Its An other Destructive Century". By the way, on that tap e, they still play hardcore. The Next is an upbit p opunk with a nifty bass/guitar player. They've been around live very often and even in T.V.!

REY: Their vocalist got Rod Stewart's brain and it' s quite annoying.

TOM: ARKHAM (ex psychotic change) plays a hard-fuck in hardcore emo-type songs, are frying amps. since 1 989 with many different line-up changes. Unfortunat ely, they still don't have any demo out.

REY: S.D.F. is a 5-skater bunch which plays D.R.I.- inspired suburban insanity. I guess tey're workin o n a demo for the "Fight the Power" U.C.C. future com pilation. And for their own lyrics, they deal with our soceity's filth. But lyrical values, they cling a bit to the capitalist ideals.

TOM: SACRUM, another death metal bunch newly formed by ex-members of I.O.V. and CONTRAS, play hell-stimu lating powered set with lyrics with a dark sense of sarcasm and environmentally-conscious songs. Anothe r newly-formed H.C. bunch is BIOFEEDBACK, a protestw ell communication in a hard-to-the-core vein bit lik e N.Y. h.c., only more melodik at times. They're in U.C.C.'s compilation #2 "Fight the Power" from Anti and are plotting their plans for a demo. Possibly o ut late September. I guess you noticed that by now, all the bands who struggle against this deprived cul ture are left in the cold by independent labels. Th en now shit corporations, all the underground activi ties here are totally D.I.Y. So, we urge foreign re cord distro and manufacturer to help your brothers i n their efforts here in this fucked-up nation! T.R. C. (twisted Red Cross or totally rich capitalists) h ad desserted the handling of underground tapes whenn it lost its market value.

REY: Geez! The guy's a yuppie scum. They've put d own approaching bunch because they're into recording facilities sales and T.R.C. are only accepting comme rcial showbusiness recording works. Tee Arse Cee!

TOM: Tapes are already sold out. But I have a copy of the albums and would be happy to send anyone inte rested, a copy. Devastated (my zine) is no longer p ublishing. I have volt-in with Anti Fanzine.

REY: And the Anti crew had finished #5 with tons of headbouncin stuffs as always! Our sixth issue is un der constructions with a bigger concept with almostt 20 bands! So watch for it! Mutilated Fanzine #7 is still available. Write em for a full catalogue. Al so from these amigos are imported records and a comp called "Help the Mutilated Radio", a benefit comp. f or their funding of a transmitter! Inverted Grind i s a newly-formed zine dedicated to all death and grindcore fanatics. the kind of zine for Sunday school! It is nearing completion of the 1st issue. Exhausted #1 is out now from the Phil. Violators crew. Head first #2 are also on the way out, and so is Mutilated #8. Contributions for their future issues are welcomed and all of em costs $2 ppd. Distribution locally was suppressed by the nizzle dazzle which banal zines and cass. in Recto, Manila. So all this zines are distributed by heavy networking. To many, the scene today is depressing with punk not popular, an the stores that is in it for exploitation of the und. scene showed their true colors backed off distributing stuffs. With people who enjoys big names inn the scene then now are yuppies and cops. I don't. For me, it's sorta better today, where you see where you really are and who people really are. Well, we gotta fuck off now. Till next, and here's some addresses. Take it away, Tom!
